

ESIL Interest Group on International Courts and Tribunals
Public Interest Litigation: The Role of International Courts and Tribunals?
Wednesday, 8 September 2021
Stockholm

Programme

Panel 1: Substantive Aspects of Public Interest Litigation
11:00-12:30, Hybrid, South House, Building C, room C497

Discussant: Cecily Rose

- Tom Ruys, Professor, Ghent University
Litigating Breaches of Erga Omnes Norms: Are All Erga Omnes Norms Equal?
- Natasa Nedeski, Assistant Professor, University of Amsterdam; Tom Sparks, Senior Research Fellow, Max Planck Institute for Comparative Public Law and International Law; & Gleider Hernandez, Professor, Katholieke Universiteit Leuven and Open Universiteit Nederland
Adjudicating Climate Change at the ICJ
- Eirini Fasia, DPhil Candidate, University of Oxford, St. Anne's College
Law of the Sea Convention's Dispute Settlement System and Erga Omnes Obligations

Panel 2: Procedural Aspects of Public Interest Litigation

13:00-14:30, Hybrid, South House, Building C, room C497

Discussant: Veronika Fikfak

- Priya Urs, PhD Candidate, University College London
The Requirement of a 'Dispute' and the Protection of the Public Interest through Contentious and Advisory Proceedings at the ICJ
- Brian McGarry, Assistant Professor, Leiden University
By Any Other Name?: The Coherence of Intervention in Public Interest Litigation Between States
- Jane Hofbauer, Researcher post doc and Lecturer, Bundeswehr University Munich
Not Just a Participation Trophy? Advancing Public Interests in Advisory Opinions