

Day 2 – Wednesday 8 September (in-person and online)

Panel I (10.30 – 12.00 CET)

Matthijs M. Maas (University of Cambridge)

Rebooting International Law? AI and the Sources, Vectors, and Consequences of the Displacement of the International Legal Order

Sophia Mo (Graduate Institute)

Propaganda in the Age of the Algorithm?

Emilie Van Den Hoven (VUB)

The case for ‘international legal protection by design’

Commentator – Daniela Gandorfer (UC Santa Cruz)

Panel II (14.00 – 15.30 CET) – online panel

Angelina Fisher (NYU)

Global Data Law (of the Sea): Double Encasement or the Opportunity to Reclaim the Commons

Elif Mendos Kuşkonmaz (University of Portsmouth)

Challenging Surveillance by Algorithmic Solutions through Law: European Courts Responses and Questions Ahead

Andrea Leiter (University of Amsterdam), Delphine Dogot (Université Catholique de Lille)

Tech-driven governance and international law: from hyperformalism to hyperfactualism

Commentator – Gregor Noll (University of Gothenburg)